Background

Teastas Eorpach na Gaeilge, or TEG, is an examination system for adult learners. The system is broadly based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, Teaching, Assessment (CEFR) (Council of Europe, 2001). The system was developed as a resource for adult learners who wish to have a recognised qualification in Irish. Scrúdú Meánleibhéal 1 was held for the first time in May 2006. The examination is based on a comprehensive syllabus which is available on the TEG website http://www.teg.ie/_fileupload/syllabi/B1_syll.pdf Other details relating to the examination can be found on the website, as well as sample papers and information for candidates. The website also hosts sample teaching materials for this level.

The oral examination

Each candidate is examined individually. There are two examiners present, one of whom interacts with the candidate, asking questions and directing the conversation. The oral examinations are recorded for monitoring purposes, and also for training and research. Candidates are expected to be able to express simple opinions about matters that relate to their own lives, to describe their plans and to talk about events that have happened to them. Candidates at this level are also expected to demonstrate an ability to compose and organise a longer narrative than those at Beginner 2 Level (A2). The details of the oral examination are laid out in the table below. The oral examination consists of 3 parts at Meánleibhéal 1 (B1).

Oral examination – advice and suggestions for candidates

In general, candidates who failed to achieve the necessary grade had poor grammatical control of the basic language structures as outlined for this level. Many candidates struggled with the correct use of tenses (present, past and future) and the correct use of prepositions proved problematic for many. Basic errors or lack of consistency in the use of séimhiú and urú, the copula ‘is’ and pronouns were also noted. Many candidates who didn’t achieve the pass mark had difficulty constructing basic sentences in Irish.

Candidates often failed to display an adequate range of vocabulary (see Siollabas Mheánleibhéal 1 B1). Candidates at this level are also expected to have a certain level of fluency and to be able to develop points, especially when talking about everyday topics relating directly to their own life. It was noted that weaker candidates were often hesitant, even when talking about topics relating directly to their own everyday lives and routines.

It also seemed that some candidates were confused about the role of the exam and put unnecessary emphasis on their suitability for the teaching profession and their experience of working with children. It should be remembered that this is an examination of candidates’ ability in Irish and nothing else.

While some use of English words is to be expected, a significant number of candidates tended to rely too heavily on words and expressions such as, just, like, you know, really.

Care needs to be given to correct pronunciation. On occasion, candidates’ weakness in this regard led to communication difficulties.

It is to be expected, and encouraged, that candidates undertake preparation work for this oral exam. However, such preparation should involve as much practice as possible and not include the memorising of large chunks of material. The use of material that has been ‘learned off’ is very obvious to examiners. Candidates are encouraged to use their time in the exam to demonstrate their ability to participate in a free-flowing conversation.

In the role play, the main difficulties related to the use of incorrect or incomplete questions. Some candidates had a tendency to pose part of the question and to trail off, e.g. Cén áit a bhfuil an… / An bhfuil aon duine…? /Cén t-am…?. Weaker candidates had a tendency to mix the tenses in which they asked and/or answered questions in the role play, some alternating between past, future and present tense.

Many candidates were quite comfortable in describing the series of pictures in Part 3 of the oral exam. Examiners noted, however, that some candidates spoke of things that were not depicted in the pictures at all. The use of numerous idioms, many of which were used incorrectly or didn’t relate to the story was also noted e.g. Bhí an ghrian ag scoilteadh na gcloch (when the weather depicted was cloudy), Is fearr an...
The following are some of the common grammatical errors made by candidate in the oral examination:

Incorrect or confused use of the past, present and future tenses

Éist mé le ceol (Éistim le ceol)
D’ólann siad fíon (Ólann siad fíon)
Thaitním Grey’s Anatomy agus an sobalchlár go mór liom (Taitníonn Grey’s Anatomy agus sobalchlár go mór liom)

Is aoibhinn liom dúl ar ais (B’aointhon liom...)

Candidates at this level are expected to be fully competent in the present, past and future tenses, especially when dealing with topics such as work and hobbies.

Errors involving séimhiú & urú

an-fuar / mar múinteoir / an foireann / san oifig mór / an Gaeilge / mo post / an mhadra / sa carr

Séimhiú is omitted after gur and the relative participle a:

Nuair a téim... (Nuair a théim...);
Nuair a beidh am agam. (Nuair a bheidh am agam.)

‘Tá’ instead of ‘is’
Tá sé baile beag (Is baile beag é)
Tá mo deirfiúr banaltra (Is banaltra í mo dheirfiúr)
Ceapaim go bhfuil sé áit deas (Ceapaim gur áit dheas é)
Bhí ball mé den club peil Gaelach ach níl anois (Bhí mé i mo bhall den chlub peil Ghaelach ach níl níos mó)

Incorrect use of prepositions

Thógfaimid traein go cathair (Tógfaimid traein go dtí an chathair)
Ag dul go phictiúrlann (Ag dul go dtí an phictiúrlann)

Singular and plural
Réitíonn gach daoine go maith le chéile (...gach duine)
Chonaic muid na radharc álainn agus tá sá an-mhaith (Chonaic muid radharc áille agus bhí siad an-mhaith)
Beidh muid ag dul go bialann Fhrancach (...go bialann Fhrancach/go bialanna Francacha)
Chonaic siad bialann deasa (...bialann dheas)
Cúpla fadhbanna (cúpla fadhbh)
Tá go leor rud ann (...go leor rudáil)
Déanann sí a lán béile blasta (...a lán béilí blasta)
Na rang (na ranganna)
Ar na múinteoir (ar na múinteoirí)
An daoine óga (na daoine óga)

Difficulties with the numbers in Irish
Cúig is fiche euro (Fiche cúig euro/Cúig euro is fiche)
Bhí tríocha daoine agus ocht páistí... (Bhí tríocha duine agus ochtar páistí...)
Beidh sé duine ag dul ann (Beidh seisear ag dul ann)

Ceathrú nóiméad tar éis a naoi (Ceathrú tar éis a naoi)
Sa pictiúr a dó/trí... (I bpictiúr a dó/trí...)

Use of the definite article
An muinitir na háite (muinitir na háite)
Sa Baile Átha Cliath (i mBaile Átha Cliath)

Sentence structure
Taitním an bia (Taitníonn an bia liom)
Ba mhaith liom ag dul go dtí (Ba mhaith liom dul go dtí)

Use of the verbal noun
Ba mhaith leó uachtar reoite a ceannaigh (...a cheannach)
Is maith liom ag éist (...ag éisteacht)
Is féidir leat téigh isteach (...dul isteach)

Answering questions
Candidates, even at this level, often give is ea or tá as affirmative answers to every question. See the examples below:

Examiner: An maith leat ceol?
Candidate: Is ea. (Is maith /Ní maith).

Examiner: An imríonn tú aon spórt?
Candidate: Is ea. (Imrím / Ní imrím).

Examiner: An as Corcaigh tú?
Candidate: Tá. / Tá mé. (Is ea / Ní hea).
Examiner: An tusa is óige sa chlann?

Other problems
Words used in the wrong sense: ar siúl v ag siúl, thit v leag, Francach v Fraincis, féach v feic, taisteal v teastáil.

Positional and directional adverbs, e.g. thuas v suas / anseo v ansin / amach v amuigh

Confusing nouns and adjectives, e.g. Bhí an fear fearg (...feargach); Bhí brónach ar an mbean (Bhí brón ar an mbean/Bhí an bhean brónach).

The verb cónaigh. For example,
Tá mé i mo cónaí (Tá mé i mo chónaí); Tá sí ina chónáí (Tá sí ina cónaí).

Using the word cúpla with the plural form of the noun instead of the singular: e.g. Téim ag siúl le cúpla daoine eile. (Téim ag siúl le cúpla duine eile.)

General suggestions
Candidates are strongly advised to study carefully the sample examinations and the accompanying instructions on this website. It is particularly important that candidates are fully aware of the different sections of the exam and what is expected of them in each section.

The website also provides sample teaching materials suitable for teachers who are preparing candidates for Scrúdú Mheánleibhéal 1. Instructions for teachers, worksheets and sound files can be found at http://www.teg.ie/links-resources/teaching-materials.290.html
